

Figure S6: Two leading factors, the river discharge and the precipitation, found correlated with the seasonality in the bacteria levels in BC: weekly average flows of rivers in QC, NB, PE, and NS (a) and of the Churchill River in NL (c); weekly precipitation (with mean shown as the solid line) in QC, NB, PE, and NS (b) and in NL (d).